Flood Detection in Satellite Images

This project focuses on detecting floods in satellite images using various approaches. It is divided into three main tasks:

1. Classical Approaches

- Random forst classifier:

2. Deep Learning Approach

- ResNet50:

3. Segmentation of Flooded Area (Unsupervised)

- ISODATA Clustering: